

I fervently support the Wisconsin No-Call List consumer protections and I do not want these protections usurped by the federal government at the urging of special interest, monied commercial groups. On this issue, Wisconsin rightly focuses on the individual and consumer interests. How refreshing!